How did you learn of our program?

Why do you want to be a FTHS volunteer?

Please describe any relevant volunteer experience you have.

Are you a yoga teacher or practitioner? What type? How long have you been teaching or practicing?

Are you currently teaching yoga and if so, where? What type? How long have you been teaching or practicing?

Why do you think this program is important to prisoners?

How do you think meditation/yoga in prison might be different from teaching in the community?

What are your attitudes/feelings about incarceration? Do you have any personal experience?

What are your attitudes/feelings about police/correctional officers? Do you have any personal experience relating to the criminal justice system?

What personal characteristics do you have that will help you be successful while teaching in the correctional system?

Please provide 2 relevant professional references (name, phone number and meditation or yoga group):

1) _____

2) _____

Please note that we ask that you make a minimum one-year commitment to volunteering with our program.

Once we have reviewed your application and you are deemed qualified for the program, you will be contacted by a representative of The John Howard Society of Nova Scotia and an interview will be set up. If accepted, you will be assigned to the correctional facility closest to you. You will be required to complete a police check, an institutional application form, attend an FTHS volunteer orientation and complete the institutions security training.

Please attach a current resume to your application
